

DISASTER VICTIM IDENTIFICATION (DVI)
FOR RADIOGRAPHERS
- Practical Workshop
Sat 21 October 2023
The Royal Melbourne Hospital

08.45 – 09.00	REGISTRATION
09.00 – 09.15	Welcome	Edel Doyle ANZ-IAFR DVI Coordinator
09.15 - 09.30	Q & A from your online learning!	Edel Doyle & Denise Elliott DVI course facilitators
09.30 - 10.00	DVI and the Coronial Inquiry	Coroner Katherine Lorenz Victorian Coroner
10.00 - 10.30	The role of the police in DVI	Insp. Rod Anderson Australian Federal Police
10.30 – 11.00	MORNING TEA
11.00 - 11.30	Practical considerations when performing dental radiography for DVI	Dr. Lyndall Smythe Forensic Odontologist, VIFM
11.30 - 12.00	Disaster Planning -A Forensic Pathologist's Perspective	Prof. Peter Ellis Chair, Interpol DVI committee
12.00 - 12.30	Overview of DVI in Australia	Dr. Jodie Leditschke Mortuary Manager, VIFM
12.30 – 13.30	LUNCH
13.30 - 14.15	1. Forensic fluoroscopy techniques Radiographers will have the opportunity to practice screening a simulated body bag and locate artefacts of interest under fluoroscopic control. This also involves the documentation of the screening process using the appropriate IAFR and Interpol forms.	Denise Elliott, IAFR & UKFRRT Member
14.15 – 15.00	2. Forensic radiography techniques Radiographers will have an opportunity to use a mobile X-ray machine that could be used on deployment, as well as documenting the radiography process using the appropriate IAFR and Interpol forms.	Edel Doyle, IAFR International Liaison Officer & DVI Coordinator of the ANZ-IAFR
15.00 – 15.30	AFTERNOON TEA
15.30 - 16.15	3. PMCT techniques An introduction to PMCT scanning performed for DVI purposes, including scan protocols and using the appropriate IAFR and Interpol forms	Rebecca McDougal, ANZ-IAFR Committee Member
16.15 – 16.45	Review, Q & A, Feedback & Closing Remarks	Edel Doyle, Denise Elliott & Rebecca McDougal, ANZ-IAFR DVI course facilitators

GROUP DINNER -venue and time TBC